

Annual Report
Center for Rural Health Pipeline Activities
2018-2019

PIPELINE- HIGH SCHOOL

STATISTICS

OVERALL NUMBER OF STUDENTS INVOLVED	2649
NUMBER OF EVENTS	76
COUNTIES	19
HIGH SCHOOLS	38
NUMBER OF HIGH SCHOOL GROUPS VISITING CAMPUS	10 EVENTS INVOLVING 236 STUDENTS

Embedded in the larger initiative is a smaller more targeted part of the initiative which includes health care club formation, trips to the medical school, medical and other speakers, suturing clinics and other activities for the schools that wish to pursue the more intensive approach.

COLLABORATIONS

In order to maximize resources, the MUJCESOM Center for Rural Health partners with a variety of agencies and programs, primarily those that serve the underserved and minority student population, including

- Upward Bound
- GEAR-UP (Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs)
- HSTA (Health Sciences Technology Academy)
- HOSA (Health Occupations Students of America)
- Project Lead the Way

Events with groups targeting minorities/underserved/rural	23
Number of students in collaborative events	678

RESOURCES

- MUJCESOM Men's Health Organization

- Office of Recruitment/Main campus
 - School of Forensic Science
 - School of Pharmacy
 - School of Engineering
 - Basic Sciences/Physics
 - School of Physical Therapy
 - MUJCESOM Gross Anatomy Lab
 - MUJCESOM Clinical Skills Lab
 - Coalfield Health Center
 - Concord University
 - Rescare, Mercer County region
-

ASSESSMENT

Pre and post test of students

- 65% increase in knowledge of health care careers

NEW INITIATIVE

Staff attended all high school awards presentations for BS/MD students, Spring 2019

College Pipeline

College visits are made each year in order to widely disseminate information about medical school admissions and criteria. Visits include meetings with pre-med advisors, deans, and interested students.

Alderson Broaddus

Bethany College

Bluefield State

Concord University

Davis & Elkins

Marshall University

Fairmont University

Shepherd University

Wheeling Jesuit

Hampton University

Ashland CTC

University of Charleston

WV Wesleyan

WV State

Center for Rural Health Presentations

Upward Bound Regional Meeting, Keynote speaker January 2019